1. GENERAL

- a. The name of the Organization will be Ogden Amateur Radio Club or OARC (herein referred to as "the Club").
- b. The purposes of the Club are:
 - i. To provide members an opportunity to meet and discuss topics relating to amateur radio.
 - ii. Offer instruction and support to individuals interested in the art of amateur radio.
 - iii. Advancement of the radio art, community, and emergency services.
 - iv. Help members stay current on events, products, and issues related to amateur radio.
 - v. Be a voice on amateur radio issues in the community.
- c1. The fiscal financial year of the Club will be January 1 through December 31 each year.
- c2. The fiscal membership year of the Club will be August 1 through July 31 each year.
- d. Communication of the Club with the members may be done by any reasonable means including mail, email, posting on an internet or social media website, by phone, or by any other method deemed appropriate by the Executive Board.

2. MEMBERSHIP

- a. Any person interested in Amateur Radio is eligible for membership in the Club.
- b. Any eligible person requesting membership can become a member upon receipt of appropriate membership form and payment of Club

- dues. The membership year will be from August of each year through August of the following year.
- c. Membership will be on an annual basis. In order to vote at regular or annual meetings, a member must be a paid member in good standing.
 - d. There are two types of Club membership: Full Member and Associate Member. Full membership can be an Individual Member or a Family Membership.
 - e. Full Membership is open to all licensed radio amateurs. Full Membership includes all Club privileges including the right to hold a Club office, vote for Club Officers, and vote on any Club business. All Full Members are eligible for any drawings at Club activities that feature door prizes including the Grand Door Prize. Full Membership includes either an Individual Membership or Family Membership.
 - i. Individual Membership is open to all licensed individuals.
 - ii. Family Membership is open to two or more licensed individuals living in the same household.
 - f. Associate Membership is open to all unlicensed persons, such as a member's unlicensed spouse, a member's unlicensed minor dependent child, a GMRS licensee or any other interested person. Associate Membership includes all Club privileges except the right to hold a Club office, vote for Officers, or vote on any Club business. Associate Members are eligible for any drawings at Club activities that feature door prizes including the Grand Door Prize.
 - g. Complimentary Membership is for first-time licensed amateur radio operators who join the Club. Dues for these individuals will be waived until the end of the dues cycle in which they were licensed.
 - h. The preferred method for application or renewal of membership is thru the club website using PayPal or through the club PO Box. Else membership applications can be submitted to the Club Treasurer (or another Club Officer who will then submit it to the Treasurer) at regular meetings or by mail with the appropriate dues included.

3. CLUB DUES

- a. Regular annual dues are assessed for the purpose of providing funds for operating expenses of the Club and are calculated according to the following Dues Schedule:

Membership	Amount per Year
Full	$15.00
Family	$25.00
Associate	$10.00
Complimentary	$ 0.00

- b. Dues may be paid at any time during the year, but typically are paid during the fiscal membership renewal period beginning in July prior to the annual August meeting.

4. MEETINGS AND ACTIVITIES

- a. Regular meetings and activities will be held at such places and at such times as the Executive Board may designate, one each month being typical. A member of the Executive Board must be present for the meeting to be conducted.
- b. The annual meeting should be held in August each year, at a place and time designated by the Executive Board, within the area served by the Club. Elections of Officers for the following year typically occur at this meeting.
- c. Special meetings may be called by the President, by three members of the Executive Board, or upon request of twenty-five (25%) of the membership. Notice of special meetings must be sent to all Club members a minimum of ten (10) calendar days prior to the scheduled day and time of the meeting.
- d. The Executive Board will meet as a separate body periodically, but no less than once each quarter or as requirements and activities dictate.
- e. Five (5) members of the Club will constitute a quorum for the transaction of Club business at regular and special meetings. Those members of the Executive Board or any Committee who are present at the duly scheduled meeting will constitute a quorum.
- f. In any Parliamentary matters that come into question, the most current edition of "Robert's Rules of Order" will be used, subject to these bylaws of the Club.
- g. Minutes of all Executive Board meetings will be kept by the Secretary or another designated individual. Minutes taken of any regular and special meetings will be communicated to the members by any reasonable means, including electronic. Minutes of the Executive Board are not required to be made available to the general membership, but may be at the discretion of the Executive Board.

5. DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

- a. The Directors of the Club will be the Officers of the Club. The Officers of the Club will constitute the Executive Board.
- b. The Officers of the Club will be: President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Program Director, and Activity Director.
- c. The terms of each office will be one year, but may continue from year to year at the discretion of the Club membership.
- d. Vacancies of Officers will be filled by the President and will be for the unexpired term. Any Officer may be removed by a majority vote of the other Officers.
- e. The Executive Board, by majority vote of the quorum present to vote, will direct the business and affairs of the Club in a manner consistent with these bylaws.

6. ELECTION OF OFFICERS AND INSTALLATION

- a. Election of Officers typically is held in conjunction with the annual meeting. The annual election of Club Officers will be coordinated by the Nominating Committee (see “Nominating Committee” below) and be initiated with the preparation of a nomination listing, starting no later than the first day of the election month each year and providing nominations to the general membership on a ballot.
- b. The Nominating Committee must have the individual’s acceptance to place his or her name in nomination for a proposed office. Nominations presented from the floor (general membership) will be added to the ballot prior to the voting for that specific office.
- c. If there is more than one candidate for a given position, voting will be done by silent ballot and candidates will need a simple majority of those present to be approved.
- d. The newly elected Officers will assume the duties of the office for which they were elected at the next regularly scheduled Club meeting or activity.

7. DUTIES OF OFFICERS

- a. The PRESIDENT presides over all Executive Board meetings and Club meetings and activities, unless delegated to another elected Officer, and provides over-all guidance and leadership for the Club. The President is also expected to contribute an article each month to the Club’s monthly newsletter.

- Refer to “OARC Officers Duties and Responsibilities” document for details of specific duties and responsibilities of the club officers.

- b. The VICE PRESIDENT will assist the President as needed in the Club leadership and presides in the absence of the President. The Vice President is responsible for the Club’s Education and Training programs and will represent the Executive Board in arranging class locations, designating instructors and coordinating training programs (see “Public Education and Training” below).

- Refer to “OARC Officers Duties and Responsibilities” document for details of specific duties and responsibilities of the club officers.

- c. The SECRETARY will take minutes at each Executive Board meeting and distribute them to the Executive Board members on a regular basis. The Secretary will also head the Elections

Nominating Committee for the Club (see “Nominating Committee” below).

- Refer to “OARC Officers Duties and Responsibilities” document for details of specific duties and responsibilities of the club officers.
- d. The TREASURER will maintain the Club membership records and maintain the Club’s financial records. A quarterly financial status report will be published at the end of each fiscal quarter and presented at the Executive Board meetings as determined by the Club President and distributed to all Executive Board members. The Treasurer will maintain a club Post Office Box and will also file with the IRS and State each year to maintain the club’s status as a 501(C7) non-profit corporation. (see “Club Accounts and Funds” below).
- Refer to “OARC Officers Duties and Responsibilities” document for details of specific duties and responsibilities of the club officers.
